

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

Group No. 3. COMPENSATION CASES.

The twelve tables in this group represent compensable cases, that is, cases where the disability extended over more than fourteen days. These tables include cases which have been closed during the year 1918 by the filing of a final receipt; showing the amount of compensation that has been paid up to the time the injured was able to return to work, or that have been terminated by the filing of the necessary petitions, which have been passed upon by a Referee or the Workmen's Compensation Board. The tables also include fatal and permanent disability cases where the total amount to be paid is definitely stated in the agreement for the payment of compensation.

The tabulations show the class of industry, cause of injury, nature of injury, loss of parts, social condition, amount of compensation awarded and paid, degree of accident and sex of injured, as well as the number of dependents in all compensable cases.

Group No. 1. ALL ACCIDENTS.

This series of twelve tables embraces the industrial accident reports received at the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry during the year 1918 and includes all accidents where the disability was for two days or more. These tables give the industry in which the accident occurred, nature of injury, part injured, loss of parts, degree of accident and sex of injured, time and wage loss, social condition of injured and number of minors under 16 years of age who were injured.

Table showing workers killed and injured in Pennsylvania industrial accidents, reported to the Bureau of Statistics and Information by months in 1916, 1917 and 1918.

INTRODUCTION.

The following series of tables cover industrial accidents which occurred in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in cases where the disability was for two days or more. These statistics are compiled monthly, covering the month in which the reports are received by the Bureau of Statistics and Information of the Department of Labor and Industry, and represent reports received during the entire year of 1918.

These tables are made up in three groups, one covering all accidents, one covering fatal accidents and another including compensation cases, and are published in the order named. These tables carry considerable interesting detailed information, and emphasize the importance of exercising every precaution for the prevention of accidents.

The tables included in Group No. 1 cover a total of 184,844 accidents, including 3,403 fatal accidents, 53,783 cases of a serious nature, where the injury resulted in the loss of more than fourteen days to the injured person, and 127,658 cases of a minor nature causing disability of fourteen days or less. Of the 184,844 accidents covered in this group, 180,680 were cases where males were injured and 4,164 cover accidents to females. The 3,403 fatal cases include 3,379 accidents to males, and 24 accidents to females.

The tables included in Group No. 2 give detailed information covering these 3,403 fatal cases and show the number which occurred in each county.

In Group No. 3 the tables cover a total of 69,920 accident cases where compensation has been awarded and paid. Of this number 2,607 were fatal cases, and 67,313 of a serious nature, resulting in a disability of more than fourteen days. Of the 69,920 cases, 68,603 represent accidents occurring to males and 1,317 are female cases. The total amount of compensation paid covering the 67,313 disability cases, was $4,780,197 an average of $71 per case. The amount paid and awarded for the 2,607 fatal cases was $6,859,718, an average of $2,631.27 per case. The grand total of the amount paid and awarded in both disability and fatal cases was $11,639,915, or an average of $166.47 for each of the 69,920 accidents covered in these tables.

Group No. 4 presents summary of accident data.

The Bulletins of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry will hereafter be issued serially, designated by numbers instead of by months. The Bulletin will contain, in the future, safety and welfare material and such data as it has contained in the past. It will be issued as frequently as is practicable under existing conditions and every effort will be made to disseminate thoroughly through the industries of Pennsylvania the arguments for safety that are vital to conserving the man power of Pennsylvania and of the Nation.
